Meeting At Paducah Tomorrow To Locate Western End of

JEFFERSON DAVIS HIGHWAY.

Enthusiasm Intense And Many Counties Will Be Represented By Delegates.

The meeting at Paducah to-morrow, the chief object of which is to locate the Jefferson Davis Highway from Hopkinsville has aroused the liveliest possible interest and there is sure to be a tremendous crowd present, several conflicting interests pulling each for its favored route.
The routes diverge in a mile of Hopkinsville where the roads fork, one leading to Cadiz and the other by Princeton. The Princeton route is supported by Crittenden and Lyon counties as well as Caldwell. A county meeting held at Princeton Monday was a big gathering that filled the courthouse and $4000 was subscribed in a few minutes by citizens and the Fiscal Court pledged $8000 or more; citizens along the route promised to help with their teams and much substantial help was promised. Lyon county had a delegation of 43 present and that county is also thoroughly aroused. What is known as the Cadiz route goes by Canton and from that point two routes are proposed, one to Benton by the ridge road and the other by Murray by the valley road and thence to Benton. Both routes continue from Benton to Paducah. The Mayfield route turns south at Murray to Mayfield and thence to the Mississippi river. The rivalry between the routes is very keen and may result in several roads being built. The Jefferson Davis Highway may become the Jefferson Davis Highway System, with many branches leading to the Davis Home at Fairview.

As mentioned in a recent issue of the Kentuckian, Dover, Tennessee, is planning to connect with the Lafayette pike to Hopkinsville at the State line and build a Ft. Donelson Way 38 miles from Dover to Hopkinsville.

Judge Walter Knight and R. E.
Cooper attended the meeting at Princeton Monday and were greatly impressed with the enthusiasm shown.

A delegation will go to Paducah to-morrow to attend the meeting there, which will determine the route into the Purchase.

The train leaves here at 5 a. m. and leaves Paducah returning at 4:40 p. m.
